Females in Football is a New Zealand Football national recruitment campaign which aims to increase the number of females participating in football (players, coaches and referees).

Girls and Women's football week is all part of this, so come along and have a go!

As part of the week, there will be various activities taking place across the country, such as:

- School sessions
- Fun football festivals, where you will get to meet the Football Ferns!
- Female introductory coaching courses
- Female introductory refereeing courses
- Introductory training sessions at clubs

"Girls and Women's week is all about providing more opportunities to come and try football and so to any female who has not participated in football before, the message is just come and give it a go."

Bev Priestman

Development Manager
